46 Mecklenburgh Sq 21/1/84.

My dear Mrs Llanos,

I enclose you account with the date & my cheque for the balance of £

I suppose you have the spectacles by now: the ear instrument I have not yet been able to see.

Have you seen the selection from Kent's works just issued in America in 3 Volumes?

9. Volume of Speech Addresses by the Lord Mayor [illegible] for the Mansion House and Guildhall Banquets, Accounts, Appropriations, &c. &c.;
but it contains some [illegible] passages of letters from the late Lord Mayor in his own handwriting; also good coloured reproductions of the Portraits of your brothers George & Tom.

John is dreadful.
I can quite understand how your likeness to Tom weighed upon John. How very striking (can ya tell me
for certain whether Miss Jeffrey as well as Mrs. is dead? Yes rather wish that she is, but I don't feel sure that in

has not quarrelled
with his grandmother, & found it expedient
to shelve her by implication. Such things are done on a rather different scale by Americans.

Yours always very
sincerely

My dear Mr Ternan

I am quite ashamed of troubling you so often; but I am much in want of money, and as some of my Christmas accounts are still unpaid, and people are impatient, I should feel most sincerely obliged to you, to apply to Mrs Gladstone for the Dividends.

Yours in haste
Isaac Reed de Llanos
